

MARCH NEWSLETTER

THIS MONTH...

All MOSS Clubs worked to advocate for Alyssa's Act on the federal level. Students contacted their lawmakers to pass this important legislation by sharing their personal experiences with school safety.

Our College Ambassador Program kicks off this month with plans to bring MOSS to college campuses this fall. For more information, email Jadyn Turner. Jadyn@makeourschoolssafe.org.

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

MORGANTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
MORGANTOWN, WV

We proudly recognize our Morgantown High School MOSS Club, led by advisor, Stacey Yuhase, for their commitment to our mission. Co-Presidents Ella Kupec and Jayla Embree have shown incredible spirit and leadership during our Hour-A-Thon campaign, organizing food drives and promoting messages of kindness. The club is now focused on working with state leaders on the passage of Alyssa's Law in West Virginia.

STUDENTS IN THE NEWS

Zander Bauer and Elijah Falkenstein, founders and co-presidents of the Staples High School MOSS Club, the first in the state of Connecticut have played a pivotal role in advancing school safety both locally and statewide. Their advocacy was instrumental in helping pass Alyssa's Law at the state level, as well as in securing $695,000 in district funding to support the implementation of panic buttons across their school system.
